

Entrepreneurs

Entrepreneurs play a key role in any economy, using the skills and initiative necessary to anticipate needs and bringing good new ideas to market. Entrepreneurship that proves to be successful in taking on the risks of creating a startup is rewarded with profits, fame, and continued growth opportunities. Entrepreneurship that fails result in losses and less prevalence in the markets for those involved.

The term entrepreneurial growth means organization plans to achieve its objective to grow and expand a business by its quality, quantity, and turnover. Entrepreneurial growth can be in terms of innovators, business developers, radicals, expanders, customers.

Skills

Entrepreneurial skills can include a broad range of various skillsets like technical skills, leadership and business management skills, and creative thinking. Because entrepreneurial skills can be applied to many different job roles and industries, developing your entrepreneurial skills can mean developing several types of skill sets. For instance, to be a successful business owner, you may need to develop your business management skills. To build and maintain successful project teams you might need to improve your leadership and communication skills.

To acquire entrepreneurship skills is interesting to combine formal education with its non-formal counterpart and non-verbal communication methods such as theatre and drama with the possibilities offered by communication through the use of modern technologies.

Youth Entrepreneurship

Entrepreneurship skills

Entrepreneurial skills can encompass a large range of both soft and hard skills. Because of the many business roles entrepreneurs may take on, they may also develop a variety of different skill sets to accommodate the growth of their businesses and brands. Developing the following skill sets can also help you develop your entrepreneurial skills

- Business management skills
- Teamwork and leadership skills
- Communication and listening
- Customer service skills
- Financial skills
- Analytical and problem-solving skills
- Critical thinking skills
- Strategic thinking and planning skills
- Technical skills
- Time management and organizational skills
- Branding, marketing and networking skills

Co-funded by the European Union

Growing skills

Growing entrepreneurship skills refers to an individual's ability to turn ideas into action. It includes creativity, innovation and risk-taking, as well as the ability to plan and manage projects in order to achieve objectives. This supports individuals, not only in their everyday lives at home and in society, but also in the workplace in being aware of the context of their work and being able to seize opportunities, and is a foundation for more specific skills and knowledge needed by those establishing or contributing to social or commercial activity.

Erasmus for entrepreneurs

One of the great opportunity to grow the entrepreneurship skills is to take part in a Erasmus for Young Entrepreneurs programme.

Erasmus for Young Entrepreneurs is a cross-border exchange programme initiated by the European Commission. The programme gives new or aspiring entrepreneurs the chance to learn from experienced entrepreneurs running small businesses in Europe.

Entrepreneurship Education

Entrepreneurial education is vital for the development of entrepreneurial attitudes and behaviors. Transversal skills such as creativity, spirit of initiative and entrepreneurship will help those who go through entrepreneurial education programs to develop potential to think creatively and innovate, to develop proactivity, flexibility, autonomy, ability to manage and track a project and pursue getting results. Such individuals will better meet increasing needs for adaptability and flexibility on labor market, in an economic environment characterized by globalization, uncertainty and dynamic changes. Entrepreneurship education also contributes to the development of the understanding of businesses evolution, entrepreneur's skills and provides the most favorable frame for entrepreneurship competencies acquisition, so necessary to generate availabilities for private initiative. The objectives of entrepreneurship education are related to improving entrepreneurial skills of young people; stimulate creativity and self-confidence, encouraging innovative startups, increasing the role of entrepreneurs in society and the economy. On the other hand, entrepreneurial programs provide an excellent opportunity to connect education systems with the local economy because they are based on specific activities and projects and on the voluntary participation of real entrepreneurs.